GAME

Diplomacy With Uncle Sam

Being Urged

the British Press of London.

Final Question Should be Handled With Common Sense, They Say.

Government Official Illegally Seizes a Dublin Paper for Making an Attack Upon King Edward.

London, May 11.—The Spectator, in article on the Nicaragua canal, says that the government will make the problem with more shrewdness and common sense than formerly displayed, and argues that Great Britain holds all the diplomatic cards in the game, and can easily permit the United States to abrogate the Clayton-Bulwer treaty and give itself away so completely that the United States will be utterly in the wrong, and Great Britain gain a diplomatic victory at every point. But it will be much better to avoid that temptation and approach the subject as though the Clayton-Bulwer treaty were nonexistent. It is to great Britain's interest to ignore the treaty and allow the United States to construct the canal under any political conditions she chooses, provided she be always open to British shipping on the same terms as American shipping. The Spectator contends that the only alternatives are either that Great Britain prevent the canal from being built or that the Americans tear up the treaty and compel Great Britain to suffer humiliation or fight, and the Spectator does not believe for a moment that the British people would sanction a war on the question of the abrogation of the treaty.

River Ran Dry.

Florence, A. T., May 11.—The Gila river on the Sacaton reservation has gone dry, and no grain will be harvested by the Indians. Great desolation will ensue and government aid will be required to relieve the situation.

Open Sundays.

Omaha, May 11.—Mayor Moores issued an order to Chief of Police Donhue revoking orders recently issued relating to Sunday observance. The order relating to midnight closing will continue to be enforced.

NOT KIDNAPED.

Little White McCormick Was Accidentally Drowned.

New York, May 11.—The body of Willie McCormick, who disappeared from his home in this city some weeks ago, was found in Cromwell creek at One Hundred and Sixty-first street and Railroad avenue. The body was identified by the boy's sister. The parents of the boy said that they had abandoned the idea of foul play, and that they believe the boy had been accidentally drowned.

Buried the Hatchet.

Chicago, May 11.—Isaac L. Elwood, former director of the American Steel and Wire company, who is said to have been holding out against the organization of the United States Steel company because the minority stockholders were not to be paid what he considered a sufficient sum for their mills, has buried the hatchet. Mr. Elwood, who arrived here from New York, said: "I have settled all my differences with the new steel trust, and there is no longer any friction or misunderstanding between us."

White Farmer Lynched.

Wichita, Kan., May 11.—J. L. Chandler, an old resident farmer of Island, Day county, Oklahoma, was taken from his home, presumably by cattlemen, and lynched. For some time there has been trouble between the farmers and the cattlemen, and during the past few weeks a great many cattle have died from poisoned water. Chandler was suspected and lynched as a warning to others. The identity of the lynchers is not known.

Mrs. Hanna's Denial.

Cleveland, May 11.—The first thing for Mrs. M. A. Hanna to do on her arrival home was to deny the rumor of the engagement of her daughter Ruth to a young Washington attorney. "The report is absolutely false," exclaimed Mrs. Hanna, with considerable feeling. "It is an outrageous report and I want it emphatically de- nined."

BURNED

To the Water's Edge on Lake Superior.

Passenger Steamer Bon Voyage a Total Wreck.

Five Members of One Family Were Drowned and all the Other Passengers and the Crew Escaped in Boats.

Houghton, Mich., May 11.—The passenger steamer Bon Voyage of the White Line, Duluth, burned to the water's edge on the beach near the Lake Superior ship canal. The crew and passengers escaped in the boats except five members of the Altman family of Larimore, grandmother, mother and three daughters, who were drowned. A fourth daughter was saved by hanging on to a fender. The steamer caught fire around the smokestack. The order was given to beach her and she put in toward the shore, going aground in the shallow water about a mile from the beach.

Dashed Down a Hill.

Pittsburg, May 11.—In a streetcar collision at Brushton, H. S. Cunningham, conductor on one of the cars, was so badly hurt that he died soon after in a hospital. William Rodecker, conductor, and Rev. I. J. Brown of Brushton, were painfully bruised and cut. The accident was caused by the burning out of the motor on a Frankstown avenue car, which dashed down a steep hill and crashed into a car on the Hamilton avenue line.

Two Drowned.

Port Huron, Mich., May 11.—The schooner Fostoria, in tow of the steamer Annie Laura, coined with a huge cake of ice in St. Clair river and sank almost immediately. Two sailors, whose names are not known, were drowned. Three members of the crew were saved. They are: Captain Albert Lockert, Annie Lockert and Albert Cronk, all of Sandusky, O.

Struck by Lightning.

Norwalk, O., May 11.—Mrs. Paul Orphy, this city, while passing out doors from her home, was struck by lightning, the current burning her face and neck in a terrible manner. She can not recover.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, May 11.—Statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $160,000,000 gold reserves, in the division of redemption, from $18,000,000 to 20,000,000. Signor Guliccardini is convinced that the Italian budget is the best in Europe this year.

Italy's Roll.

Rome, May 11.—Signor Guliccardini, the reporter of the budget committee, announced in the chamber of deputies that it was possible to count on a surplus of $5,000,000 lire, out of which $1,000,000 could be expended on railroads. Provision is also made for a sinking fund, leaving a net surplus of $18,000,000 to 20,000,000. Signor Guliccardini is convinced that the Italian budget is the best in Europe this year.

HIGH

Averages for Wheat and Rye

To May First, According to the Official Reports

Compiled by the Statistician of the Department of Agriculture.

The Conditions as Reported Up to May 1st, Were Very Encouraging for Good Crops of the Winter Grain.

Washington, May 11.—Returns of the statistician made up to May 1 show that the average condition of winter wheat on that date to have been 94.1, and the area under cultivation was 28,267,000 acres. This is 2,015,000 acres, or 6.7 per cent, less the area sown last fall, but 2,032,000 acres, or 7.7 per cent, in excess of the winter wheat harvested last year. Of the reduction, about one-half is reported from Texas and California, due to the ravages of the wheat plant louse, and in the latter to the cutting, as is not usual in that state, of a considerable acreage for forage. In the states that had 1,050,000 acres, or upward sown last fall, the following percentages are reported as abandoned or cut for forage: Missouri 1, Kansas 1, Illinois 1.9, Pennsylvania 2, Indiana 2.5, Ohio 3.2, Tennessee 4.7, Michigan 9.6, Oklahoma 12.5, California 18 and Texas 4.4.

For the area remaining under cultivation, the average condition on May 1 was 94.1. While this average is 10.5 points above the mean of the May averages of the last 10 years, and has been exceeded only three times in 17 years, it must be remembered that the acreage plowed up, cut for forage and otherwise abandoned has been entirely eliminated.

For the area remaining under cultivation, the average condition on May 1 was 94.6, as compared with 93.1 on April 1, 1901, and 93.2, the mean of May averages for the last 10 years.

The present condition is the highest since 1891. Pennsylvania and New York, with two-fifths of the total winter rye acreage of the country, each report a condition of 94, which corresponds with the 10-year average in New York, but is four points above such average in Pennsylvania.

The average condition of meadow mowing lands on May 1 was 92.8 against 90.8 on May 1, 1900, 84.9 at the corresponding date in 1899 and 93.1, the mean of the May averages of the last 10 years. The average condition of spring pastures on May 1 was 91.5, against 91.3 on May 1, 1900, 83.5 at the corresponding date in 1899 and 90.8, the mean of the May averages of the last 10 years.

Of the total amount of spring plowing reported as contemplated it is estimated that only 66.3 per cent was actually done up to May 1, the proportion usually done by that date being about 75 per cent for the whole. Only three times in the last 15 years has the percentage done by May 1 been as low as it is this year.

For Freeer Trade.

Washington, May 11.—Mr. Edward Atkinson of Boston made an argument before the industrial commission for what he called "freeer trade." He said that not more than 5 per cent of the people of the country are benefited by protective tariff, while the other 95 per cent of them "pay the bill."

Lumber Prices Advanced.

Minneapolis, May 11.—Finishing lumber of all grades has been advanced $1 a thousand by the price list committee of the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's association. The reasons given are a heavy demand and scarcity of logs for finishing lumber.

Store Destroyed.

Salt Lake City, May 11.—The cooperative store at American Fork, Utah, was entirely destroyed by fire. Loss $65,000.

Wheeling, May 11.—A cloudburst east of Wheeling caused the overflowing of Peters', Chapel's and Woods' runs, tributaries of Wheeling creek. At Triadelphia, the Baltimore and Ohio tracks were covered with water for several hours and trains were held up, including two passenger trains. At Greggsville, a little child, name unknown, is said to have been washed away and drowned. San Domingo, May 11.—The districts of Moca and La Vega are in arms against the government. Congress has decreed the suspension of constitutional guarantees in the revolting districts. Several arrests have been made and the government is taking active measures.

Railway Changes.
New York, May 11.—It is announced that James J. Hill and Charles H. Tweed have resigned from the board of directors in the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, and that Samuel Reed and James McCrea of the Pennsylvania railroad have been elected in their places.

Plasterers Triumph.
Cleveland, O., May 11.—The strike of union plasterers, inaugurated here a few days since, has practically ended in a victory for the men. They demanded $3.50 instead of $3 per day. All but four contractors have conceded the demands.

BRIDGES

Were Washed Away in the Flood

That Followed a Cloudburst Near Pittsburg.

Railroad Tracks Were Under Water, Barns Were Swept from the Hill Tops and Great Damage Done.

Pittsburg, May 11.—A cloudburst in Tarentum and vicinity did many thousands of dollars damage. Rain fell in torrents for an hour, barns were washed down off hills and in some cases were upturned against residences. Bridges were washed away, the railroad bed was washed away at Creighton. The railroad track was covered with three feet of water for more than three miles. Telegraph and telephone poles and trees were washed down on the tracks for a long distance, and at least 700 cellars were flooded. People were panic-stricken, and many moved their furniture from their houses. Before the storm abated the rain turned to hail, and inside of 10 minutes more than an inch of hail covered the ground for miles. Big landslides are reported up the road.

Both Found Guilty.

Topeka, May 11.—The jury in the case against Rev. F. W. Emerson and Dr. R. R. Mitchell found a verdict of guilty. They were in the mob that broke into a "joint" in North Topeka some weeks ago, and the specific charge against them was participating in a riot. Mr. Emerson is pastor of the First Methodist church here.

Criticizing the sumptuous style with which the president and a part of his cabinet are now touring across the country, the New York World says: "It may be natural for Mr. McKinley to show himself to the people in such imperial state, thus provided. But is it wise? Is it good taste? Is it well? Is not the republic composed not entirely of millionaires, but in part of plain people, influenced by example and accustomed to look to such men as their 'first citizen' for example? Is not this a time when optimism needs the restraint of prudence, when loosening moral obligations call for the salutary contrasts of rigid principle? Would not the 'first citizen' better use his high position and wide influence to set an example of moderation and moral sensitiveness than to set an example of ostentation and laxity?"

By a shrewd and audacious device of far-fetched interpretation the chief of the war office has found authority in the army reorganization act for immediate increase of the artillery branch of the army to the maximum of nearly 19,000 men. The law itself was drawn so as to provide for this increase in five years, with a 20 per cent increase in each succeeding twelvemonth. But the horseleech's daughters' cry for more places rang so insistently upon Secretary Root's ears that he sought speedy escape from the infliction in a quick distribution of all available offices under his peculiar construction of the law. The batteries and corps will be woefully skeletonized, but the entire batch of commissions for the lot may be issued; and this is the main point at the war office, after all.

General E. B. Finley, of Crawford county, is prominently mentioned as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for supreme court judge. General Finley is well and favorably known throughout the state of Ohio, and northwestern Ohio will present a solid front in demanding his nomination should he decide to be a candidate.

The most suitable subsidy the government could extend to the fleet of British ships which Bunker Morgan has purchased would be to grant them the right to fly the stars and stripes and to do an unrestricted business in carrying and fetching upon the high seas.

A proposition is under consideration to combine all the iron companies of Alabama in a big trust. Go right ahead, gentlemen; the sooner everything is put under trust control the sooner the people will revolt and put an end to all trusts.

Edward H. Harriman, the New York banker and broker, is said to control more miles of railroad than any man in the world, which is another way of saying that he controls the votes of more U. S. Senators than any other man does.

Being the only free show of its kind on the road, the McKinley exhibition is drawing big. The combination of a President, four members of the Cabinet, and the most palatial special train ever seen is calculated to attract crowds.

ANOTHER

Bridge Must be Built by the Commissioners.

The commissioners of Allen and Van Wert counties will have to get together again and provide for the building of a new bridge across the canal at Third street in Delphos. Capt. Spence of the state boat yesterday issued a notice that the present structure had been condemned by the state canal officials.

GOT A REDUCTION.

The court heard the argument in the case of Mary C. Rowlands et al., against the city of Lima, in which the plaintiffs petitioned to be relieved from the payment of an excessive paving assessment, and a decree was issued cutting the amount down from $129 to $125.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Bert Crosson, aged 20, and Lovie Pratt, aged 17, both of Lima.

PERSONAL.

Mr. H. Kelly and Charles Wolfe, of north Main street, are entertaining their mother, Mrs. Wolfe, of Pittsburgh, who is here to spend the summer with them.

Mrs. John Desler, of Wellston, is the guest of relatives, stopping over Sunday on her return from a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. E. Seney, of Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Steiner, of New Orleans, are in the city, the guests of Drs. D. W. and I. F. Steiner.

Strike at the Exposition. Buffalo, May 11.—About 650 carpenters and joiners employed at the exposition grounds are on strike. Unless the men's demands are granted by the exposition company the walking delegates threaten to call out every man employed at the exposition grounds. The trouble is over what the carpenters call "unfair" lumber, which, as interpreted by the union, means material furnished by mills employing non-union men. The present strike is the outgrowth of the recent strike of mill hands.

Five Men Hanged. Cumberland, Md., May 11.—An engine in a sawmill located in the mountains near Glade farm, Pendleton county, W. Va., blew up, killing the owner, Edward Thompson, and Frank Frances, the offseer. Frank Thompson, the son of the proprietor, William Bartholow and William Loomis were all seriously injured.

Boilers Blew Up. Deadwood, S. D., May 11.—A set of boilers at the Highland hoist, operated by the Homestake Milling company, blew up with great force. Ed Bretsford, engineer of the dynamo and air compressor, was almost instantly killed. Mandy Klinger and Joe Cowlin, two helpers about the hoist, were severely injured.

THE OLD ROCKING HORSE.

Battered and bruised and worn and old, Friends of his mane and tail.

A veteran charger stanch and bold, He has weathered life's fiercest gale—

The hero of many a gallant raid, In many a bloody war.

A soldier of fortune, undismayed By battle and wounds and trials!

Breath the guiding touch of a little hand

Through the wonderful realms of Playlike Land,

Where the spirits of fancy abide.

But, strange to say, in his boldest fight,

Though he hasted or rested not,

Through all his trials by day and night

He has stood in the selfsame spot!

He was ridden far, he was ridden hard,

And his bones smarted and bled,

And oft he felt, as a sweet reward,

A kiss on his worn-out nose.

And, though he is rather the worse for wear

And is crippled and scarred and old,

In the eyes of his master he is fair

And worth his weight in gold.

"Your day will be commensurate with the risks, senior. Let us waste no more time. Set forth at once and find a craft."

At the end of another half hour we had the details arranged as far as possible, and I was ready to begin my share of the work. Within 24 hours I had found a schooner yacht from the Mediterranean, an English built craft whose owner had tired of playing sailor for sale. It required a week to repair, repair, find a crew and put provisions aboard, and Da Costa was ready with $2 wherever there was need for $1. It was given out that a yacht had been bought for a resident of the Azores and was to be delivered there, and there was no trouble about her clearance.

While knowing, of course, that Da Costa was in Cadiz, it appeared that Don Ramirez had neither imprisoned his daughter nor set an extra watch on her movements. To dodge her dilemma and escape from the house and grounds and make her way to an appointed rendezvous must have been a difficult matter, but she accomplished it, and two hours after dark one evening a boat brought the pair of lovers aboard. Ten minutes later we were under way. A fair girl I never looked upon, and she was as brave as she was fair.

Phillips first sprung into public notice last November when he engineered a most successful corn "corner." In plain, untechnical language he bought all the corn that could be had and forced the price up in the face of persistent and determined hammering by the men who wanted to sell. Phillips' November corn "corner" lasted about 33 days. He bought 4,500,000 bushels at 38 cents and sold them at 50 cents, clearing for himself and his syndicate about $400,000. This November "corner" of Phillips' was the first successful "corner" engineered in Chicago since the days of "Old Hatch," about 14 years ago.

The young Chicago speculator has just repeated the trick with May corn, together with wheat and oats. Relying on the conditions of the western roads, the impossibility of purchasing corn directly from those who had it to sell and on the sympathy and support of farmers and country traders, who are entirely in accord with him, Phillips forced and kept up the price of May corn. He had bought it at about 40 cents and had cornered all the available supply. When the speculators who had orders for corn and who were compelled to get it to deliver tried to buy, they found the price soaring to higher points than it had reached in years.

Naturally Phillips had to encounter the fierce opposition of the "bears," and for some days the scene in the Chicago grain pit was one of bedlam. The bears resorted to every artifice and device to make the young "corn king."

CHICAGO CORN KING.

STORY OF HIS RISE FROM RAILROAD CLERK TO GRAIN MAGNATE.

How He Engineered Two Big Corners In Spite of Opposition From Veteran Operators—He Is an Expert on Corn-corn.

To meet scores of the oldest, shrewdest and most experienced speculators on the Chicago board of trade and utterly defeat and demoralize them in a gigantic trade battle is a wonderful feat for any one, but when it is accomplished by one of the youngest grain speculators in the Windy City it becomes little short of miraculous. The young man who has done this is George H. Phillips, and he has done it twice within the past six months.

"A WONDERFUL REMEDY" SAYS DR. WM. H. VAIL.

Medical Bulletin Cites Remarkable Cures by Paine's Celery Compound.

"I have never known a remedy equal to Paine's Celery Compound," writes Dr. Wm. H. Vail, visiting surgeon to the St. Louis Mayfield Sanitarium, in the Hospital Bulletin, of which he is the editor.

"It builds up weakened, irritated nerves, increases the nervous force, keeps the liver, kidneys and stomach in healthy action, maintains the body free from harmful humors, cures debilitated and exhausted conditions and prevents the breaking down of the nervous system."

"The great causes of worn out nerves are worry, business anxieties and overwork, which impair the vitality of the system and cause disordered liver, weak kidneys, indigestion, dyspepsia, melancholia, nervous headaches, exhaustion, neuralgia, heart disease, paralysis, insomnia, rheumatism, pains and aches all over the body and a host of other derangements."

"I have thoroughly tested Paine's Celery Compound and know its value, advise all persons who are still run down in health to nourish and strengthen the nerves by the use of Paine's Celery Compound—no matter what the cause of the nervous condition may be, no how severe the disorder is."

"I have treated many obstinate cases of disease which promptly yielded to Paine's Celery Compound, and which made most marvelous recoveries in a very short time after I had prescribed this specific remedy. Paine's Celery Compound is not a patent medicine."

"No class of professional men are more conservative, more careful in trying new remedies, more painstaking in digging out the real facts of a case than physicians."

"When doctors know a remedy not only prescribe and use, but also carry home Paine's Celery Compound for their own families, there can be no doubt of its high standing in the eyes of an educated general public."

"I have thoroughly tested Paine's Celery Compound and know its value, advise all persons who are still run down in health to nourish and strengthen the nerves by the use of Paine's Celery Compound—no matter what the cause of the nervous condition may be, no how severe the disorder is."

Last night the members of Lima Herd No. 1, Benevolent Brotherhood of Buffalos, held a social session in their prairie hollow, the old Masonic lodge rooms, the event being given in honor of three members who are about to depart from the city. Messrs. George Kalnes, cellist; Charles De Voe, harpist, and G. R. Crum, violinist, who leave Monday to assume the duties of their summer's engagement at a new D. & C. steamer which will run between Detroit and Buffalo this summer to handle passenger traffic to and from the Pan-American exposition.

The program of the evening's event was an informal one, but the various songs and impromptu addresses given in response to the suggestion made by the chairman of the session, Bro. J. G. Lamison, were well received. A fish fry was one of the features that was also thoroughly enjoyed. About fifty members of the herd and several candidates for membership were present.

This morning upon authority issued in type written regulation form by Capt. Morrison, of Co. K., Second regiment, O. N. G., William A. The statutes regulating the Ohio National Guard provide that enlisted men of a company of militia may be arrested and confined in prison for five days unless ordered released before the expiration of that length of time for failure to obey the orders of their commanding officer to attend drills. Under this provision of the law the two members named above were arrested this morning.

Annual Event
Of High School Orators So Decides.

The Judges Having Crowned Miss Sutton With the Laurels.

Upper Sandusky Had the Affair Well in Hand and the Delegations were Royally Entertained.

Ottawa captured the prize at Upper Sandusky last night, Miss Etha Sutton, representing the senior class of that town in the forensic contest which has become one of the most notable annual educational events in northwestern Ohio. All honor is due to the efforts of Miss Lenore Detwiler, and while she had to give way to the decision of the judges, the delegation which accompanied her to cheer for Lima showered her with congratulations for her brilliant effort.

In the ten cities representing the district the very best talent that the schools embrace is chosen for the oratorical competition and the lines must therefore be closely drawn when it comes to selecting from the participants the one who is entitled to wear the laurels. It is not oratory alone that suggests criticism, the grading being carefully done so as to include thought, composition, grace and delivery. Where one might surpass in any one of the essentials, another's average along other necessary qualities may leave the rival competitors with the meager solace of knowing that at least in one respect he or she is the superior.

Miss Sutton's average, as announced by the Judges was $39; Charles D. Kelley, of Kenton, came second with $42 and Harry Mowen, of Fostoria, with $79. No further awards or comparisons are made, but it is the public expression that Miss Detwiler would have ranked with the top notchers had all of the grades been announced. Those who took part, together with the subject discussed were Miss Etha Sutton of Ottawa, "Do the Scriptures Oppose War?" Charles D. Kelly, of Kenton, "The Swing of the Pendulum;" Harry Mowen, of Fostoria, "The American Soldier;" Karl Regdour, of Wapakoneta, "Mission of the Twentieth Century;" Milton Stoker, of St. Marys, "Abraham Lincoln;" James M. Collette, of Van Wert, "The Growth of Political Freedom;" Lenore Detwiler, of Lima, "The Poet's Realm;" Howard C. Dahm, of Tiffin, "The Black Man's Burden;" Arthur M. Haner, of Bucyrus, "Americanism;" Gerard Martin, of Findlay, "Our Twentieth Century Outlook."

The delegation from Lima was joined here by those from Ottawa and St. Marys, the boys from the former school carrying canes with flowing ribbons of the high school colors. When Upper Sandusky was reached the delegation was met by the reception committee and a band, and from that moment until the departure the hospitality of the city was displayed with a lavish hand. Upper Sandusky did herself proud and everybody who was there speaks of the occasion as one which added new interest and enthusiasm. It's now up to Ottawa for next year.

GANG

Of Tramps Assault Workmen

On Tank Farm.

C. C. Ridenour Injured in the Fight.

The Prowlers Were Put to Flight After Stubborn Resistance.

Venerable Father of Mrs. J. E. Mell Removed to the City Hospital to Have an Operation Performed.

Last night while working at the tank farm just south of town, C. C. Ridenour had an exciting experience with tramps which he does not care to have repeated. He and George Tracey, well were engaged in pumping oil from one of the large tanks, the latter being at the boiler, the former walking the line. While thus engaged a gang of "hobos" set upon Ridenour with the evident intention of robbery. Finding himself at a great disadvantage he fought them off until he could get back to where Mr. Tracey was. The tramps were desperate and threw a shower of stones, several of which struck Ridenour, one very painfully injuring his right wrist. Tracey hurried to his companion's assistance and after quite a stubborn resistance the tramps were put to flight. Their victim was much unnerved and quite badly bruised by stones which struck him in several places.

The venerable James Kniseley, of west Cairo, came to South Lima, yesterday to visit his daughter, Mrs. Dr. J. E. Mell, of east Vine street. Shortly after arrival he became alarmingly ill, requiring the ministrations of physicians. Early this morning he was removed to the city hospital for treatment.

On account of the death of her mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Murry, of west Eureka street, have been called to Erie Court, Pa.

Thursday evening at the Grace M. E. parsonage, Rev. Leatherman officiated the union of Miss Bessie Pratt, of Ada, and Bert Crosson, of South Lima, in marriage. Both have many friends, who will join in congratulations. They will make their home in South Lima.

The infant son of Isaac Stanton, of South Pine street, is critically ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rowson pleasantly entertained friends, Thursday evening.

Contrary to expectations of her friends the condition of Mrs. Frank Stanyer, of Atlantic avenue, is becoming daily more alarming. Several days ago she was thought to be convalescing, but suffered a relapse which has left her in a precarious condition.

Stella lodge of Rebekahs had a good attendance at last night's meeting. Degree staff practice occupied the evening.

It will be pleasing to many South Lima residents to know that the first of next week Rev. G. W. Smith, pastor of the South Main Street Presbyterian church, who has been in the west the past few weeks for the benefit of his health, will return to his south side home. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Smith, who went to Colorado some time ago to join her husband, who was then in that state.

They have both been greatly benefited by the change of climate. Mr. Smith will be able to resume his duties with renewed zeal. The members of his congregation and others will be glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Smith back to Lima.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Wood, of south Elizabeth street, are the proud parents of a charming daughter which arrived yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wright entertained a few guests, Wednesday evening.

The friends of Mrs. David Dana, her will be sorry to learn of her precarious condition at her home, on St. John's avenue. It is feared she cannot recover.

Disease Hides Beauty

III Health is Like a Mask. Dr. Greene's Nervura

Blood and Nerve Remedy
Takes off the Mask and Shows the Smiling Face of Health
IT TURNS SPRING WEAKNESS INTO STRENGTH.

Sick people wear a mask. The faces they show to the world are not their real facts. Beneath the strained expression and pale cheeks created by nervousness and disease there is the charming glow of health. Spring exhaustion makes havoc of beauty. Wear and tear shows in sunken eyes and tell-tale lines. Dr. Greene's Nervura rolls up the mask of ill health and beauty shines forth. Many women have needlessly exposed themselves to Winter's draughts and Spring calls them to account. Some have had sharp turns of fever; some have had severe colds all Winter; some are suffering from the after-effects of the Grip; some are chronic sufferers. But all are finding the Spring a trying time, and the effort to throw off the mask and be their own true happy selves once more becomes a nervous anxiety which only tightens the hold.

The women who take Dr. Greene's Nervura in the Spring will keep fresh and young looking. It will keep them from getting cross and discouraged. It will purify and enrich their blood and clear the face of all the blemishes that mar its beauty at this season of the year.

Dr. Greene's Nervura

Blood and Nerve Remedy

AWAKENS ENERGY, BUILDS UP STRENGTH AND CURES THE CHRONIC TROUBLES.

The prompt help for all who are run down in the Spring is Dr. Greene's Nervura, which does not shock the system with powerful purging but brings it promptly up to par by strengthening the circulation, enriching the blood and giving vim and snap to nerves grown weak and lax. Those who have been living a life of excitement during the Winter but have escaped acute attack, feel a lessening of energy as the days grow warmer. There is a lowered tone of vital strength, the stomach doesn't act right, the nerves give trouble, and there are sleepless and weary nights. All these troubles are overcome by this great Spring Medicine which helps Nature renew the physical strength of men and women.

Mrs. A. TURNBULL, 40 Cranston St., Providence, R. I., says:—

"For ten years I have been suffering from terrible exhaustion and was not run down, as the sands of life were all but run out. I do not know what was my stomach, and so for my appetite I doctor constantly, but get no relief from my great suffering. I took the most wonderful of all medicine Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and it cured me, yes perfectly and completely," said Mrs. Turnbull. "From the first bottle there was an improvement. I have always recommended this great remedy to every one, and advise every suffering woman to use it, for it will cure me."

Write to Dr. Greene About Your Health.

All who need advice about health may write to Dr. Greene or call upon him at his office, 35 West 14th St., New York City, and secure his advice without charge. The skill which produced the wonderful Nervura is at the full disposal of the sick. Write to-day if you are ill.

impossible at the price. A certain portion of great wealth lies hidden in the drawing room, little hidden shrub in oils which some dealer in Paris induced him to buy. He is very fond of taking a walk by the arm, leading him before the centre and saying,

"Great picture that. By Macaroni di Vernecelli, you know. I paid $1,000 for it in Paris and got a great bargain. F." (meaning an enormous sum) "says it is worth $10,000."

A few days since this gentleman was lunching at the Artists' Club when the cat came out of the bag. Some one said,

"It, old Centipede says that that frugal night may be paid off at $10,000. Is it true?"

The artist answered smugly:

"I will tell you how that happened. He asked me to dinner one day and after we left the table took me to see the picture and told the whole story. Then, turning abruptly, he asked,

"How much is that painting worth?"

"Why, Mr. Centipede," said I, "I really would not like to place a value upon it."

"Well, I'll put it differently," said he. "How much would you charge for such a picture?"

"I don't mind saying," I answered, "that I would not paint such a picture for $10,000." I had to be civil, you know."—London Answers.

NOVEL ENGINE INVENTED

Clever Contrivance of an Iowa Machinist.

POSTS VERY LITTLE TO OPERATE.

Inventor Claims His Machine Will Revolutionize Motive Power, as It Requires Little Water or Fuel. Prominent Railway Officials Interested in the Invention.

An invention has been perfected in Des Moines which promises to revolutionize the condition of motive power for all kinds of machinery, says the Chicago Record-Herald. It is known as the hydro-pneumatic engine and is the invention of Louis Kessler. Mr. Kessler has been working on the idea for about 14 years.

The principle of this motor is that it uses but an infinitesimal amount of fuel and water and is therefore very inexpensive in operation. In the ordinary engine a large amount of fuel is necessary in order to keep a large volume of water continually boiling to provide the necessary steam, although but a small quantity of steam is used at any one time. In this invention the boiler is practically dispensed with, hence also the large amount of fuel and water required in the ordinary engine. A very small quantity of water in the lower end of what might be called the steam chamber does the work. This is called the boiler in this motor.

Operating in this is a long hollow piston lacking about one thirty-second of an inch of fitting to the sides of the boiler, thus leaving room for a steam cushion all the way around it and also making it possible for the condensed steam to run down the sides. A rod connected with the piston passes up through the center of another piston which operates in a vacuum cylinder above the boiler and is geared direct to the fly wheel. The upper piston referred to is absolutely airtight in the vacuum cylinder and is geared to the shaft in the usual crank manner. As the steam piston is forced up it forces the upper piston up, leaving a vacuum which draws it back again, thus giving, in addition to the steam power of from 45 to 60 pounds pressure, the additional 15 pounds pressure of the atmosphere in the vacuum.

"One of the greatest advantages I claim for my invention," said the inventor, "is that in view of the fact that these two pistons are connected direct to the machinery and there being a great difference in the length of their stroke it dispenses entirely with the 'dead center' principle of all other engines, as one of the pistons always begins doing business before the other one ceases."

"Surrounding the vacuum cylinder is a jacket containing water, which prevents the heat from the friction of the airtight piston from expending the metal and wasting any power. It also operates to keep the upper end of the boiler cool and assists in the condensation of the steam which trickles down to the lower end of the boiler, where it immediately becomes steam again and is used over and over.

"There is absolutely no vent or escape to our engine. The one-sixteenth of a horsepower model which we have been running for some time requires less than three teaspooonsfuls of water and as the water is in an airtight chamber it will last an indefinite length of time, and all the heat that is necessary for this engine is a small alcohol lamp.

"One one-half horsepower engine is operating nicely with 1½ ounces of water and using a common gas jet for fuel. I will soon have in operation a five horsepower engine, standing about four feet high, which will operate with three pints of water and requires fuel but one gasoline generator, such as is on an ordinary gasoline stove."

The inventor expects to be able to demonstrate that the average railway locomotives can be run from New York to San Francisco with one barrel of crude oil and three or four barrels of water. He has demonstrated that his principle will work perfectly with small motors, and he is now at work to prove that it will work equally well by multiplying the power to produce a large engine.

Some prominent railway officials and others heartily interested in securing the cheapest motive power have taken a lively interest in the invention and are preparing to take advantage of it.

Unique Operation Performed.

Dr. Syfried, the famous surgeon of Berlin, has just received the congratulations of his professional brethren on a successful operation believed to be unique, says the Chicago Inter Ocean. He removed a portion of a workman's skull pulverized by the blow of an iron bolt and filled the cavity with bone from the skull of an ox, carefully pared down and carved to fit the hole. The skin was run over the injury and rendered naturally. The patient experienced no ill effects.

New England Has Its Own Fuel Peat.

Dr. G. M. Randal, a practicing physician in Lowell, Mass., feels sure that he has solved the fuel problem which has been bothering manufacturers in the east for many years, says the Boston Globe. Peat is the basis of his fuel, and owing to its cheapness and abundance in the vicinity of Lowell it is possible to run the mills of the Springfield City for the next 50 years without going to the coal producing states for coal.

Also Lucky For Jonathan. Half of the British loan has been taken by Americans. It's lucky for John, says the Boston Globe, that John is prosperous.

The French Cavalier at Sedan. Both banks of the Rhine were held by German hands, so was Bapaume, a village nearer to Sedan. The French held it and soon after L'Orléans was taken, 1423, German guns were laid into it. It fell into the French hands when Sedan was taken, 1424, in close formations without a spike, it is said, less than two men in breadth or depth. One of this terrible conflict of detached troops, about this time, was the French Cavalry in a heroic charge to turn the fortunes of the day and retrieve the honor of France.

General Marguerite, called by some "the star of his arm," was struck in the face by a bullet while riding out to reconnoiter the ground before being taken. He now handed over the command to De Galigni, who took command in that same time on that mentioned date. The flower of French cavalry against the enemy and for the sake of their country charged the German ranks again and again on the hills.

But the courage of the gallant horses was all in vain. The armament was unequalled in the world, the breech-loading rifle held in steady hands, and no effort of the French cavalry could withstand the slowly tightening grasp of that very cruel Chambers' Journal.

Comb, of the L. E. & W., went mush-

HOEGNER

Is Now Lieut. Col. of the Regiment.

The Ballots Canvassed Here
Last Evening.

Tiffin Company Plays the Baby
Act and Sends in a Blank.
Col. Ream Again Detailed on Court Martial.

Last evening the canvassing board appointed at the recent convention of the officers of the Second regiment, O.
N. G., met at the Norval in this city and canvassed the vote of the various companies cast for the selection of a new lieutenant colonel, to succeed
Lieut. Col. Clucher, resigned. Major John G. Hoegner, of Wapakoneta, was the only candidate for the office but a majority of the vote of the regiment was necessary for an election. Once at a previous election when there were three candidates for major's commission and three candidates to be elected one "Maj. Hoot," of Tiffin, did not receive a majority of the votes of the regiment and thereupon he and other Kuarties of his town became "exceeding sore" and refused to play any more. At the election a few days ago the Leitner-Kaert crowd at Tiffin did not cast a vote but sent in a blank report to the canvassing board. They did just what was expected of them but it made no difference in the result. Major Hoegner received 398 votes and only needed about 300 to be elected, consequently the regiment has for its Lieut. Col. a man who is both capable and worthy.

Col. Ream has again been detailed to serve on a court martial which will convene in Cleveland next Tuesday to try Major Dodge, of the Fifth regiment.

Will Give an Organ Concert in St.
Paul's Lutheran Church, Wednesday Evening, May 15.

It is not often the people of Lima will have an opportunity of hearing such master artists as will appear in St. Paul's Lutheran church on next Wednesday evening, May 15th. Mr.

First church, of New York; teacher in the Guilmant organ school and chief organist at the Pan-American Exposition, has been secured for an organ concert. Mr. Carl will be accompanied by Mrs. Ellen Fletcher Coples, in N. Y. City, they have met with unstinted praise and admiration.

We are sorry that lack of room will not permit us to invite the children.
No admission fee will be charged but a silver offering will be taken. This organ recital will be of special interest to church organists, choirs and all others interested in church music.
All such are urged to embrace this
